

Congresswoman Brooks Discusses Tech, Congress, Preparedness, and Policy

Wiley Connected
May 6, 2020

Congresswoman Susan Brooks, who sits on the Energy and Commerce Committee, joins Megan Brown to talk about COVID-19, pandemic preparedness legislation, telehealth and telecom successes, liability risks and good samaritan protections, and more. As Congress looks to get back to D.C., what does the future hold for bipartisanship and progress to address the pandemic?

Related Professionals

Megan L. Brown
Partner
202.719.7579
mbrown@wiley.law